the.wynk: back

me: wb

the.wynk: fucking hell

the.wynk: fucking annoying coworker's lack of communication has now fucked my entire test.

the.wynk: so I have to start completely over.

me: how come?

the.wynk: he didnt let me finish setting it up before he took the environment down for an hour and a half the.wynk: so by the time it came back up and I was able to finish, another process ran that screwed everything up.

me: I just don't understand why you have these problems at your workplace the.wynk: I don't either but I'm pissed me: but it happens all the time me: this isn't a one off the.wynk: I can't do anything about it the.wynk: except piss and moan that I have to start over the.wynk: there isn't even anyone here to complain TO that can do anything about it at the moment.

the.wynk: the only thing I can do is keep requesting that we get some notification before it goes down the.wynk: which does not work me: no you need to do more than that me: the system you have just doesn't work the.wynk: well I dont have the power to make any changes, all I can do is point out what is causing issues the.wynk: which I do me: I think you shold do more me: propose a new system the.wynk: like what!

the.wynk: some of the developers who have a lot more pull than me for this sort of thing have already done so the.wynk: and have been largely ignored in favor of politics me: well then you all need to do so together the.wynk: I propose things all the time the.wynk: not a comprehensive system with powerpoint charts and written plans the.wynk: but things that would help us or make the process go more smoothly the.wynk: ultimately it is up to the bosses to agree or not and implement/enforce the.wynk: regardless the.wynk: there is nothing I can do about it at the moment the.wynk: ahh viren has got a galaxy tab the.wynk: I don't think so dude me: I do

me: we have a connection the.wynk: it's him or me me: we can have a threesome me: lo

me: I

the.wynk: no way

me: what!

me: there are millions of teenage girls who would kill for such a chance!

the.wynk: am I a teenage girl?

me: I'm sure he has plenty of grown up fans too the.wynk: am I a bieber fan?

me: ah yeah good point

me: TOO OLD.

the.wynk: and she is not a skanky ho like Ke$ha the.wynk: who I am pretty sure you would get a disease from me: I hate that it's "keh-sha"
